Altera pars.

Octava vna.

The image shows a page from a musical manuscript. It features two staves of music, each with a large, ornate initial 'E' at the beginning. The first staff is titled 'Altera pars.' and the second 'Octava vna.' The music is written in a style typical of the 16th or 17th century, with a single melodic line on a five-line staff. The notes are diamond-shaped, and there are various accidentals and clefs. The lyrics are written below the staff, in a Gothic script. The text is: 'E decet laus, te de cethy- mnus, tibi de betur honor, tibi debetur benedictio & claritas, ti- bi gratia rum a- ctio: ti- bi debetur honor, virtus & gloria & fortitu- do & for ti tu do DE Ono- stro in se cula in se cu la seculorum amē in secula in se cula ij. in secu la seculorum amen ij. A- men.' The page is numbered '3' at the bottom right.
